This information is collected automatically for statistical analysis and website improvement purposes. It does not normally identify individual users.

5. Improvement of Services

The information collected through website analytics helps the institute to:

- Improve website performance and accessibility.
- Enhance student and visitor experience.
- Develop better academic and administrative services.
- Improve communication and information delivery.
- Strengthen website security and reliability.

This technical information is collected automatically and does not require any action from users.

6. Communication

The institute may use your contact information to:

- Respond to your inquiries and requests.
- Provide admission-related information.
- Send academic notifications and examination updates.
- Communicate fee reminders and administrative notices.
- Inform you about workshops, seminars, conferences, placement drives, internships, training programs, and institutional events.
- Send important notices through Email, SMS, WhatsApp, Voice Calls, RCS, or other authorized communication channels, wherever appropriate and with your consent where required.

7. Information Security

L. C. Institute of Technology (LCIT), Bhandu implements appropriate administrative, technical, and organizational measures to safeguard personal information against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or misuse. While every reasonable effort is made to protect your information, no method of electronic transmission or storage can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

8. Changes to this Privacy Statement

The institute reserves the right to update or modify this Privacy Statement at any time without prior notice. Any changes will become effective immediately upon publication on the official website.
